Blueberry Green
Kukicha

Luscious and Healthy
New Tea - Packed with Antioxidants

Enjoy this wonderful Japanese organic karigane (green kukicha stem) tea combined with nutrient-packed flash freeze-dried organic blueberries. Fresh fruity vegetal flavors deliver a powerful boost of antioxidants and very low caffeine content in a satisfying, healthy tea that also happens to help satisfy sweet-tooth cravings.

Jasmine
Pearl

A Fine Artisan
Tea That Unfurls with Flavor

Fine Chinese artisan organic green tea made from intact spring-harvested growing tips, (two leaves and a bud) hand rolled into a pearl-like ball that unfurls in the cup. During processing, the tea is layered with fresh jasmine blossoms. Each pearl becomes saturated with a delicious, heady fragrance that rises again from the cup during infusion.

Genmaicha
Matcha

Green Tea with Rice and Matcha Powder - Fortified for Flavor and Health

This new tea begins with spring harvested Japanese organic Sencha leaves, rich in fresh green vegetal flavors and health promoting antioxidants. Next, grains of toasted rice are added to impart a nutty, grainy sweetness. The final and key component of this tea is the sprinkling of precious matcha, the premium powdered green tea of the highly revered Japanese Tea Ceremony. The end result is a satisfying, substantial, and healthy green tea for you to enjoy!
